Father Darkleaf

by c. h. r.

Often, in times past, it come to my deadline—"count-down" fifteen minutes — and that I have no more "Darkleaf" in type. Each time I resolve that "next week" I will write some and get the first pouring from the Linotype "slugs" in advance. Well, lo and behold, I cleaned up my home desk Saturday night, and I found, unsued, enough Father Darkleaf copy to run a full column for a year. Ah yes, usually, when I begin, have dinner and glance through the newspapers to see what folks are doing to us now, I start to write. However, I do not write about the Reds, for I have never seen one. Nor do I write about the stock market. I own no stocks and bonds. I can't say that I am too interested in how many tournaments Sammy Snead or Arnold Palmer golf pro has one. I like to golf — about twice a year. And when I play, I reserve the right to putt for the nearest green, regardless of the official club I may use. I think the best that I ever made a glorious nine-hole round at Exmore, Va., on the Eastern Shore. I came nearby to becoming forever immortal by joining the "hole-in-one" club. My tee shot ran right to the very lip of the cup, and there! I distance to tap the ball in with my putter, but laid flat on the ground and sneezed. The ball rolled in for a handicap two, instead of a "hole-in-one." But, to get down to business, I have all this week of copy I have written at my home office night after night and weekend. It is about every conceivable subject: My hour with the Babe Ruth; getting Lana Turner's autograph, — my three days with Jack Dempsey, autograph on a pair of boxing gloves; Billy Rose and his "Long Tresses" at the Diamond Horseshoe night Club in New York — and Billy Sunday, Saks Fifth Avenue Easter Sunday morning, and Joye Emerson.

But, mostly, I do not print all of the copy about the Old Country Store that I have found that many do not want it, but people are mostly interested in things THEY do! It is a quitting party. Could be because we are now having as to when we will have the first tomatoes. Will it be in just one radish and escallion, one tomato, and we will have a hill and sing No. 88). And when the President wins some honor, just how do I get it into print. So far as I know this is the only newspaper in the world printing a "birthday list." But, how do I get print it? I have never been ashamed of my birthday. I was born shortly after midnight, on December 21, 1905. But, I want to get away to talking about YOU.

There are more trailers around the town right now than I have seen in a long time. tick-tick-tock, which is Pompey fugit. I hazard a guess on that some new pipeline editor is in the projecting stage. Appomattox is indeed fortunate to be the headquarters location for great heavens and glory be. Before I wanted to say something more about all this building going on. Mother Brightleaf and I walk around town, in the late afternoon often, and always we ask each other: "Who that building is for?"

This column is about long enough, but may I conclude it by saying Appomattox is a growing town.

TEACHER CONTRACTS

Mayor Lawson Gives Report On Town Action

To the residents of the Town of Appomattox.

The week of May 7th through May 19th has been proclaimed "Clean-Up Weeks" for our town. During this period any and all garbage and trash will be picked up by the town on Mondays and Thursdays. I want to take this opportunity to urge all property owners, to please, see that during this period that everyone make a special effort to clean their lots and collect all trash so that it might be disposed of properly.

The summer months will soon be here and I think we can reasonably assume that many people will be visiting our area. A clean and neat looking town does impress visitors and I think we should all make a especial effort to put on our Sunday best during this time.

Trash containers have been conveniently located along main and Church Streets. Let's all do our part by using these containers instead of our streets for trash and refuse.

Many of you have probably noticed the new Mercury Vapor lights along Main - Church Streets. These lights give almost twice the light as the old type, with only a very slight increase in cost to the town. Eventually the Council intends to replace all old lights with the newer ones. If anyone has any comments pro or con concerning the new lights, I am sure your council would like to hear from you on this matter.

We are constantly trying to improve our sewer and water systems with an eye to their present and future uses. Many bottle necks in our sewer systems are being eliminated and new improvements are being made. Our water system is being extended with larger lines in certain areas to provide better service to our citizens. Your council is constantly trying to improve these facilities so that they will more than take care of our present needs and also our future needs in years to come as our town continues to grow and expand.

Recently the council purchased some new equipment to be used by the town employees to better aid them to render quicker and more efficient service to all of us.

Work is progressing on the curb and gutter and sidewalk project on Confederate Blvd. west to the Cooperative limits. Your Council has requested the State Highway Commission for additional funds to continue these same improvements from the corner of Church and Confederate Blvd. to the east Cooperative limits. This will certainly be a big asset to the property owners along Confederate Blvd. and a big improvement to our town in many ways.

I want to thank each of you for the splendid cooperation that many of you have given your council in the past. We invite your comments about how we can improve your town and we look forward to better serving all of you.

Respectfully,
S. R. Lawson
Mayor, Town of Appomattox
